DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/19/07 has been entered.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 1641

3. Claims 1-6 and 14-18 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,597,456 in view of Natsuume et al for the reasons of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1-3 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Naya et al (US Patent 6,611,367) for the reasons of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1641

7. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Naya et al in view of Natsuume et al for the reasons of record.

8. Claims 1-12 and 15-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Malmqvist et al (US Patent 5,492,840) in view of Natsuume et al for the reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed 3/19/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to the Natsuume et al reference, Applicants have provided a number of arguments challenging the Examiner's position that since the material used in Natsuume et al is the same as the material used in the dielectric block of the instant invention, the material in Natsuume et al will exhibit the same properties recited in the instant claims.

With respect to Applicant's argument concerning differences in polarization properties caused by the manner or shape in which the dielectric block is made, Applicants have not provided any experimental evidence to show that the material in Natsuume et al does not exhibit the same polarization properties as the instantly claimed dielectric block. Furthermore, since the instant claims are directed to an apparatus, the manner in which the dielectric block is made is immaterial. Also, the instant claims fail to recite any limitations concerning the shape of the dielectric block so any arguments concerning shape are not on point.

With respect to Applicant's argument concerning the low binding affinity of the ZEONEX material of Natsuume et al for many kinds of organic or inorganic materials, Applicants have not provided any experimental evidence to support such assertions and thus is not convincing.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claims 19-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
